BBOY BOOT CAMP CODE OF CONDUCT CONTRACT

Please note: While we have lots of fun, Bboy Boot Camp is an intense training program . Attendance involves making a commitment to full participation. All students and their parents must commit to the following:

1. Students must attend ALL classes and participate in ALL camp activities.
2. Students must arrive at all classes in time appropriately dressed and ready for class.
3. Students must abide by all of the rules and regulations, including rules about remaining on site from arrival to departure.
4. Except in the case of illness or injury, repeated tardiness or missed classes will result in the student being asked to withdraw. In this case no refunds will be made.
5. Because of the physical demands upon their bodies, students must ensure that they get adequate sleep. Students younger than 15 will be in bed by 10:00 pm, and those who are older by 11:00 pm.
6. All students must attend the warm-up classes and final demonstration which will take place August 27, at 3:30pm
7. Bboy Boot Camp is physically and mentally strenuous. During the period of the camp (2:00 pm August 22 - 4:30pm August 27) Ballet Boot Camp students are not permitted to engage in certain physical activities such as organized team sports, tournaments and other events which could cause injury or muscle fatigue. Breaking this rule will result in immediate expulsion with no refund.
8. Because of the short duration of this program medical, dental and other types of appointments (other than emergency) should not be scheduled during the period of Bboy Boot Camp.
9. To get the most out of Bboy Boot Camp, it is recommended that the student prepare by taking a few dance or fitness classes before hand. If the student has been injured within the last 12 months and was given exercises by a physical therapist, it is strongly advised that these exercises be resumed for at least three weeks prior to coming to summer school, even though the symptoms of the injury may have subsided. Students who have not been doing this and who re-injure themselves as a result will not receive a refund-credit.
10. Dance Nova Scotia and the Ross Creek Centre for the Arts reserve the right to expel any students deemed to be behaving in a way that is persistently disruptive or that threatens the safety and well being of themselves or others, or who place at risk the property of Ross Creek Arts Centre, Dance Nova Scotia, the staff or campers. Please note: Included in these offenses are possession of weapons, alcohol, illegal drugs or cigarettes. In the case of expulsion for any of these reasons, refunds will NOT be given and charges may be made for damaged property. Dance Nova Scotia and the Ross Creek Centre for the Arts reserve the right to suspend campers from activities where their behaviour is deemed unacceptable.

We have read the above and agree to abide by the terms of BBoy Boot Camp Code of Conduct Contract.

Day Student policies

In order to get the most from Bboy Boot Camp it is best to stay in residence. However we understand that this is not an option for everyone. The next best thing is to insure that the day students are well integrated into camp activities, so that they have the same opportunities to learn, to get to know the teachers and to make new friends among fellow campers. To this end we require the following:

1. Students must arrive by 8:45 and be prepared to stay until 9:00 to participate in all classes, daytime & evening workshops and recreational activities.
2. Students who arrive late, may be required to sit out of their first class. Persistent lateness will lead to expulsion without refund.
3. Day students are required to participate in the meal plan. Lunches, suppers and snacks will be provided.
4. Day students will be assigned a bin for their personal belongings.
5. Day students will be assigned to a cabin group in their age category, under the supervision of a counsellor.
